LESSON TWO

FINDING JESUS, THE WAY

Following Jesus as the Way means following His example and teaching. Jesus said:

"If you abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed." (John 8:31)

Jesus chided the people of His day who claimed to accept Him as Lord, but disregarded His teaching.

"But why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do the things which I say?" (Luke 6:46)

The Bible is the only dependable source of information about Jesus. Producers of films and authors of novels take liberties in telling the story of Jesus. Its possible that our parents and friends who have taught us about Jesus may have never made a serious study of the Bible. Sometimes preachers and teachers add their own opinions and philosophies making it difficult to know what is from the Bible and what is not. The fact that so many differ so widely about who Jesus was is proof that at least some are mistaken. It is essential, therefore, that each of us make his or her own study of the original source of truth concerning Jesus, the Bible.

JESUS IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

The Bible is divided into two major divisions: the Old Testament and the New Testament. The writing of the Old Testament was completed 400 years before Jesus was born, yet it contains many things about Him. The Old Testament provides glimpses of Jesus in a pre-fleshy state. When God was about to make man, He said to another divine being:

Let Us make man in Our image.... (Genesis 1:26)

The New Testament identifies this divine being as "the Word."

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. (John 1:1-3)

The Old Testament predicts Jesus' birth of a virgin.

Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call his name Immanuel. (Isaiah 7:14)

The name Immanuel means “God with us.” (Matthew 1:23) The Old Testament even predicts the place of Jesus’ birth in Bethlehem. (Micah 5:2)

JESUS IN THE GOSPELS

The New Testament records the fulfillment of the Old Testament predictions. John testifies:

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. (John 1:14)

Four writers give accounts of His life. These accounts are commonly called the Gospels, a word which means “good news”. Each of the writers seems to emphasize something different about Jesus.

MATTHEW emphasizes His teaching, especially that concerning the kingdom of heaven.

MARK features the miracles of Jesus, showing His power.

LUKE stresses the perfect humanity of Jesus without detracting from His divinity.

JOHN stresses the perfect divinity of Jesus without detracting from His humanity.

Though different, the gospels give a perfectly harmonious description of one person, the greatest in history.

No one can know JESUS, THE WAY who has not read these records carefully. Reading them, we may well be surprised to find how far the real Jesus differs from the imaginary one who has been created in our minds by the misinformation so commonly cited among us.

JESUS IN ACTS AND THE EPISTLES

The gospels do not contain all of the teaching of Jesus; they report only the teaching which He did while on earth. This had to be limited to what His disciples could comprehend in the short time that He was with them. Before He left them, Jesus told them of the arrangement by which He would continue to speak to them:

“I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you.” (John 16:12-14)

The Holy Spirit came upon them soon after Jesus returned to Heaven.

And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. (Acts 2:4)

This means that the preaching and writings of the inspired apostles, which we find in the remainder of the New Testament, are as much the teaching of Jesus as what we read in the gospels. The apostle Paul wrote:

If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things which I write to you are the commandments of the Lord. (1 Corinthians 14:37)

NO OTHER REVELATIONS

The revelation of Jesus and His teaching in the New Testament is complete. The apostle Paul warned:

But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. (Galatians 1:8)

The writer of the last book of the New Testament gives a warning:

For I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to these things, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book. (Revelation 22:18)

OLD OR NEW TESTAMENT?

Though many things about Jesus are foretold and foreshadowed in the Old Testament, it is in the New Testament that God speaks to us through Jesus.

God, who at various times and in various ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, has in these last days spoken to us by His Son.... (Hebrews 1:1-2)

This means we must not go back to the Old Testament to learn how to follow Jesus, the Way. The Old Testament law was intended simply to bring people to Jesus.

Therefore the law was our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor. (Galatians 3:24-25)

The New Testament (or covenant) “made the first obsolete.” (Hebrews 8:13)
