LESSON SEVEN

JESUS, THE WAY TO HEAVEN

Both the Bible and experience remind us that death is certain.

And as it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment. (Hebrews 9:27)

Jesus describes what will take place at the judgment when He returns:

"When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats. And He will set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left." (Matthew 25:31-33)

These two groups will go forth to vastly different destinations.

HELL

The following words describe the destiny of those on the left.

"Then He will also say to those on the left hand, 'Depart from Me, you cursed, into the everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels.'" (Matthew 25:41)

"It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire — where 'their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.'" (Mark 9:47-48)

"But the cowardly, unbelieving, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death." (Revelation 21:8)

Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. (Ephesians 5:6)

The warning of this last verse is appropriate for our times. To many, hell is a joke, considered no more than a mild by-word in our generation. Even among those who claim to be Christians, there are many who insist that God is “too good” to send men and women to hell. To question hell, however, is to question the goodness of God, for God is also too good to lie. Jesus said:

“And these will go away into everlasting punishment....” (Matthew 25:46)

One who believes in Jesus must believe that this is true. The way to hell is easy and popular.

“Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it.” (Matthew 7:13)

One does not have to do wicked things to go to hell. He or she may go to hell by failing to take the way to heaven. The Bible describes the end of the world when —

... when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. These shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power. (2 Thessalonians 1:7-9)

HEAVEN

Humanity was not created to spend eternity in hell but to walk with God in paradise (Genesis 2:7-9). When Adam and Eve lost their home in Eden through sin, God set in motion a plan of redemption by which all people may be forgiven and enjoy a home that is even better than Eden.

John the apostle was given a vision of this new paradise:

Then I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, “Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God. And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away.” (Revelation 21:2-4)

This is the paradise to which the King will summon those on His right hand, saying:

“Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.” (Matthew 25:34)

But the sad fact is that few will enter this heavenly paradise.

“Because narrow is the gate and difficult the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.” (Matthew 7:14)

JESUS IS THE WAY

Those who will enter the heavenly rest after judgment are those who die in Jesus, for He is THE WAY.

Then I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, “Write: ‘Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.’” “Yes,” says the Spirit, “that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow them.” (Revelation 14:13)

If we wish to be among those who die in the Lord, we must establish that relationship with Him while we live. This is not accomplished by merely calling Him “Lord,” but by obeying God’s will as revealed through Him. Jesus warns us:

“Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven.” (Matthew 7:21)

We have already learned that the will of the Father for those who believe in Jesus is that they should repent of their sins and be baptized into Christ.

For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. (Galatians 3:27)

Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city. (Revelation 22:14)

Having been baptized into Christ and living as He directs, we can be sure that we are in the way to heaven. If we are not in Christ, we are not in the way, for as the text in this series assures us, Jesus is the only way.
